Weekly Update

Stronger Togethers Starts with YOUR Voice

Our bargaining survey officially launched TODAY and will remain open through Friday, January 8. Take the time to make your voice heard.

This is an important opportunity for every member to have a voice in shaping our next contract. As your bargaining team begins preparing for negotiations, we want to hear from you about what's working, where improvements are needed, and what your priorities. Your experiences in your classrooms, schools, and worksites matter, and we want to make sure those perspectives are reflected in the work your team does.

The survey will help us identify key priorities, common concerns, better understand the issues that matter most across our membership, and build a strong foundation for our upcoming negotiations.

Your voice matters and your participation makes a difference! The more members who take part, the better your bargaining team can advocate for the needs of our entire union. Please take the time to complete the survey and encourage your colleagues to participate too!

NAKIA Invites Are in the Mail!

Invitations to this year's NAKIA cohort are officially on their way through interdistrict mail! Keep an eye out for yours and be sure to check the invite for event details and how to register. We're looking forward to bringing members together for another great NAKIA Academy experience, led by VEA member and NAKIA graduate, Angel Sierra Figueroa!

Invitations have been sent to members who self-identified as BIPOC on their In the Loop or membership forms. If you believe you should have received an invitation, but didn't, please contact the VEA office so we can help get you connected!

Rip City, Here We Come!

Ready for some basketball? VEA members have the opportunity to catch the Portland Trail Blazers in action on Saturday, December 12, against the Atlanta Hawks.

Visit RoseQuarter.com/events/group-tickets and use promo code "VEA" to purchase tickets. The purchase deadline is December 7, so don't wait!

VEA promo tickets include special early entry to the Moda Center to watch team warm ups!
