

COVID-19 Update

Update re: VEA Updates

Beginning Monday, April 13th, VEA will be scaling back our email and Zone communications. Thank you for continuing to check your home email for 2-3 messages over the course of the week, close to a 10 AM arrival time. Thank you Building Leads for forwarding 1-2 updates or requests to members from your building over the course of the week (potentially more if there is breaking news or details are urgent).

Any questions or concerns you aren't able to answer or clarify in collaboration with your building admin, please bring to the attention of your Building Lead. Anything they cannot answer or clarify they will then forward up the VEA Zone Communication structure for further guidance.

Vancouver Education Association

April 2020

In this month's issue:

- Preparing for next school year
 - Placement of staff
 - Involuntary transfers
 - SBLT & Building Budgets
- Professional Development Tutorial
- Interim Bargain on Pause
- 2020 State Supplemental Operating Budget Update

Respond to our VEA Survey!

VEA understands the COVID-19 pandemic has turned our professional (and personal) lives upside down! We represent your needs and interests; we want to be responsive to your experience through association channels but we also want to share your experiences in collaboration with VPS as well.

Please share your experience related to VEA communications and VPS distance learning through this quick survey (open through Friday, 4/17 @ 12 PM). Thank you for taking the time!

Free Online Book Studies for Members

Local founders of Teacher Study, would like to thank VEA members for our service to the children in our community by offering the opportunity to take one of their relevant online book studies free of charge ($160 value). You can earn 30 clock hours, work from the comfort of your own home, and take up to one year to complete a given course!

If you are interested, please choose your book study, then email Lorie@teacherstudy.org with the name of your book study of choice to receive your promocode.

VEA Workspace Smiles

